

1. As a website administrator, I want to have true information on the website DOU (experts should check articles), so that users can trust the website.
2. As a website administrator, I want to have actual vacations on the website DOU, so that users can find a job and raise in popularity of DOU.
3. As a website administrator, I want to have true salaries on the website DOU, so that users know more about salaries before they begin to search for a job or search for workers.
4. As a website administrator, I want to have verified information in the news feed, so that users can have actual information (the population of DOU should raise).
5. As a website administrator, I want to have educational information (information should be checked by IT experts) in the Technical Feed so that new users should come to the website.
6. As a website administrator, I want to have many site visits (run advertising) so that more people have quality information about IT.
7. As a website administrator, I want to have more blog experts on the DOU so that information on the website is more quality.
8. As a website user, I want to have more information about the author (about their work experience) of articles so that will give an opportunity to assess the seriousness of the article.
9. As a website user, I want don't have outdated information in Training Feed, so that saves me time reading irrelevant information.
10. As a website user, I want to have the rating of Courses and internships so that gives me information for choosing the Course.
11. As a website user, I want to have information (feed) where I can read about education programs and universities of big IT companies so that gives me information for choosing education and save my time from going to websites.
12. As a website user, I want to see true and actual information about vacations so that helps me to find a job.